Re: United States v. Henry Palta S1 07 Cr 315

Dear Judge Griesa:

I am writing to request that the Court enter the proposed bail modification Order for my client Henry Palta. This application is made on consent of the United States Government, AUSA Dan Stein.

At the original bail hearing the parties agreed to a bail package to release Mr. Palta on a $200,000 personal recognizance bond secured by himself, his wife and one other financially secure individual. An additional condition of his release was that he be monitored by pre-trial services electronically. At the time the parties also agreed, that should Mr. Palta have property to post in lieu of the electronic monitoring, the Government agreed to substitute the electronic monitoring with the property. I have forwarded the enclosed affidavit of confession of judgment substituting property for the release of Mr. Palta in lieu of the electronic monitoring.

I have enclosed a proposed Order for the Court's consideration to modify the conditions of bail, without the necessity of a court appearance.

AUSA Dan Stein, on behalf of the Government, consents to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan J. Walsh
